

MEMBERSHIP OF THE FRIENDS OF LEAMINGTON MUSIC

Leamington Music, formed in 2006, promotes a winter season with monthly String Quartet and Chamber Music concerts in Leamington and Early Music and Choral concerts in Warwick. The Leamington Music Festival is held over the first May Bank Holiday and there are a range of other concerts during the year. We run an Education & Community Programme of master-classes and workshops for schools in Warwickshire. We also sponsor the Leamington Music Prize which is awarded annually to students at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire. Donations to the Friends of Leamington Music are used to support all of these activities.

As a Friend you will receive regular email newsletters, alongside the advantage of priority booking for the winter programme and for the Leamington Music Festival. You will also be invited to the special musical events we organise exclusively for Friends.

Subscriptions for membership until 31st March 2027 are £25 (single person) or £40 (couple).

Leamington Music's income from concert ticket sales makes up only about 40% of our total running costs. The remainder has to be generated from other sources, so additional contributions towards the Leamington Music Prize, the Education & Community Programme, and for general support are greatly appreciated.

If possible, please sign the Gift Aid Declaration, as this increases the value of your donation by 25% at no cost to yourself and is a valuable source of additional support for Leamington Music.

You may make your donation by standing order, by cheque or by BACS. (Bank charges are lower if donations are made by standing order or BACS rather than cheques.)

Most Friends subscribe by standing order, and this is our preferred method as your membership will automatically renew on every 1st April - we will send you a reminder every January that this will happen.

PLEASE COMPLETE THE DETAILS ON THE MEMBERSHIP FORM (SEE THE NEXT PAGE)

and send the completed form, with a cheque if appropriate, to the Membership Secretary:
